THE MOUNTAINS.

A Peculiar Feature of the Case of Joseph Cannon.

THE GOVERNOR HAS THE PAPERS

He is Satisfied as to His Authority to Exercise Executive Clemency But Hesitates as He Fears It Would Not Be Good Public Policy.

As far as is known here Governor Tyler has taken no action concerning the ap-plication for a pardon for Joseph Cannon, of Norfolk. He has all the papers in the case at Radford where he is spending the Judge Hanckel, who tried the cases of Summer.

Judge Hanckel, who tried the cases of Cannon and his accomplices and the Commonwealth's Attorney who prosecuted the parties have expressed themselves as believing that the ends of justice will be met if Cannon is pardoned upon condition that he pay a fine of $1,000 and stay out of Virginia.

Cannon, as is well known, is a fugitive from justice and is at present in Canada. After his conviction for plotting to ruin the character of his wife, formerly Miss. Lillian lizin, he forfeited his bail bond and made his escape from Virginia. Cannon's spunishment was to be twelve months in jail and to pay a fine of $1,000. Hall, convicted of being on accomplice of Cannon's, after conviction also escaped punishment by running away. He is in the Klondike country and is doing well—so well, in fact, he has sent money to Norfeik to pay the expenses of a former "pai" to the gold fields.

THE BAIL BOND.

Cannon's father, who is a man of means to severity on his son's ball bond.

THE BAIL BOND.

Cannon's father, who is a man of means, is security on his son's bail bond. Judge Hanckel, after young Cannon had disappeared, gave judgment against the Cannons, father and son, for $5.00, but the execution of the decree was postponed by order of the court as it was proposed to take an appeal to the Court of Appeals. Ex-Attorney-General R. Carter Scott, has secured from Judge Riely a writ of error and the case will be argued probably in November.

writ of error and the case will be argued probably in November.
Governor Tyler has inquired of Mr. Scott whether or not if Cannon should be pardoned and pay the $1,000 fine that would invalidate the claim of the Commonwealth to the $5,000 on account of the forfetied bail bond. Mr. Scott is clearly of the opinion that it would not. He has probably satisfied the Governor by presenting him with ample authorities bearing on this subject that the exercise of executive elemency would not affect in the slightest degree the case now in the Court of Appeals.

AS TO PUBLIC POLICY.

AS TO PUBLIC POLICY.

The question that has been worrying the Governor is as to his authority to pardon a fugitive from justice. He is said to be satisfied that he has this right under the constitution but he is not fully satisfied that it would be good public policy to so exercise his pardoning sower.

satisfied that it would policy to so exercise his pardoning policy to so exercise his pardoning power.

There are numerous instances where similar pardons have been granted to fugitives. Four years ago Governor Mc-Rinley, of Ohio, pardoned a fugitive on condition that he remain out of that State for all time and refrain from drinking intoxicants for the space of five years. The man located in Staunton, Va. Soon thereafter he wanted to be examined for a license to practice veterfoary surgery. He was ruled out as incligible on account of being a convict under a conditional pardon.

SECURED ALLIMONY.

Three months after Cannon's conviction his wife secured a divorce and $7.090 allimony. Cannon's father paid the money. The young woman was then married to a Mr. Hodges, a sweetheart of her earlier days.

The bill which has this week had such splendid run at Main Street Vaudevilla Park has been an especial favorite with the lidies and children, and the matines this aftermoon at 4:30 o clock will offer an opportunity for those who have been un-able to attend at night to see its vari-ous features as the regular programme will be given in full.

There was another large crowd last night, which by turns laughed at and applanded the comedy and dameing of Harry McBride; admired the illustrated songs of Falk and Lillian and eat spell bound by the daring of Newell and Shevette on the horizontal bars, and the innal opportunity to see these and the other attractions of the week will be given to-might. Next week's bill will be an entirely new one. till be given in full. an entirely new one.

The suspension of operations in this State by the Southeastern Tariff Association has not affected rates as yet. It is true that there has been an increase by one company on certain risks. What the insurance people fear is rate cutting which would demoralize the business. There is no present prospect of an insurance.
